IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. — He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. — He has called together Legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without and convulsions within. — He has endeavored to prevent the Population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. — He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers. — He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their substance. — He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our Legislatures. — He has affected to render the Military independent of, and superior to, the Civil power. — He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: — For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: — For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: — For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: — For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences: — For abolishing the free System of English laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: — For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: — For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. — He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. — He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & Perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands. — He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. — In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered by repeated injury. — A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. — Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. — We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. — They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. — We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. —

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

Traditional Bulldog enthusiasm sparked the Spirit Week celebration. Anticipation increased as students participated in Grub Day, Sock Day, grand ol' Blue and White Day, and a new addition, The Fifties Day. A blazing bonfire climaxed the Thursday evening pep rally. On Friday afternoon, cheering students paraded their decorated vehicles through downtown Fayetteville.

Finally, Homecoming 1975, was Friday night. Ginny Anderson became the new Homecoming Queen. The Bulldogs were defeated (6-7) by Pine Forest. Nevertheless, it was a memorable occasion.

Elegance Accents

Three nights during the month of November, the gym is packed with parents and students delighting in the pageantry of the Miss FTS Contest. The event, sponsored by the Junior Class, was again this year a big success. Almost 200 girls participated and several hundred people turned out to watch.

The first two nights of the contest, each girl walked out on stage, excitement showing on their faces as they smiled for the judges. Semi-finalists were chosen and they returned for the final night of judging. The crowd roared when John Sternlicht announced Mary Moorman as Miss Congeniality.

Then came the moment everyone was waiting for. After the judges made their decisions, the votes were tallied, and the court was escorted on stage. There was complete silence as Margaret Beck was named Miss FTS of 1975.

Gals and Fellers

Gals and guys arrived early at FTS, November 21, to celebrate Sadie Hawkins. The Scottish Dancers had provided the cafeteria complete with hay, cornstalks, pumpkins, saddles, a buggy, refreshments and candlelit, red-checkered tables. Music was furnished by disc jockey Bill Travis. While some couples enjoyed booging to the jams, others got hitched up by Marryin' Sam. Mary Moorman and Ricky Chamra were chosen Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner. Everyone went home with sore feet but a smile on their face.

Couples promenade in the figure formation.

Those attending the Junior-Senior prom on April 25, 1975, entered a world of romantic mysticism. Juniors had transformed the drab FTS gymnasium into a luxurious hotel of the 1930's. A pagoda in the garden, sparkling chandeliers against a black ceiling, an antique car, fountains, and stylishly dressed waiters and cigarette girls helped to effect the illusion.

Couples danced to the sounds of New Image. Then, on the dance floor, Prom Committee chairmen, Student Council officers, and faculty members took part in the figure formation of a top hat. The crowning of Edward Hickman and Margie Huske, the new King and Queen, highlighted the enchanted evening. Surely, prom night, 1975, will be long remembered.

Abilities Distinguish Students

"The greatest gift one person can give to another is a deeper understanding of life and the ability to love and believe in self."

Chantal

Ann Covington, a National Merit Semifinalist, has been an active FTS student. She has participated in the French Club, the Honor Society, and the Girls' Athletic Association. She was a member of the Track and Tennis teams. Ann has received recognition from All-State Band and Who's Who Among American High School Students. Her hobbies include playing the flute, raising gerbils, bicycling, reading, sewing, and other handicrafts. Ann plans to attend either Duke University or UNC-Chapel Hill majoring in Biological Sciences.

"Yesterday is but a dream.
Tomorrow is only a vision.
But today well lived
Makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness
And every tomorrow
A vision of hope."

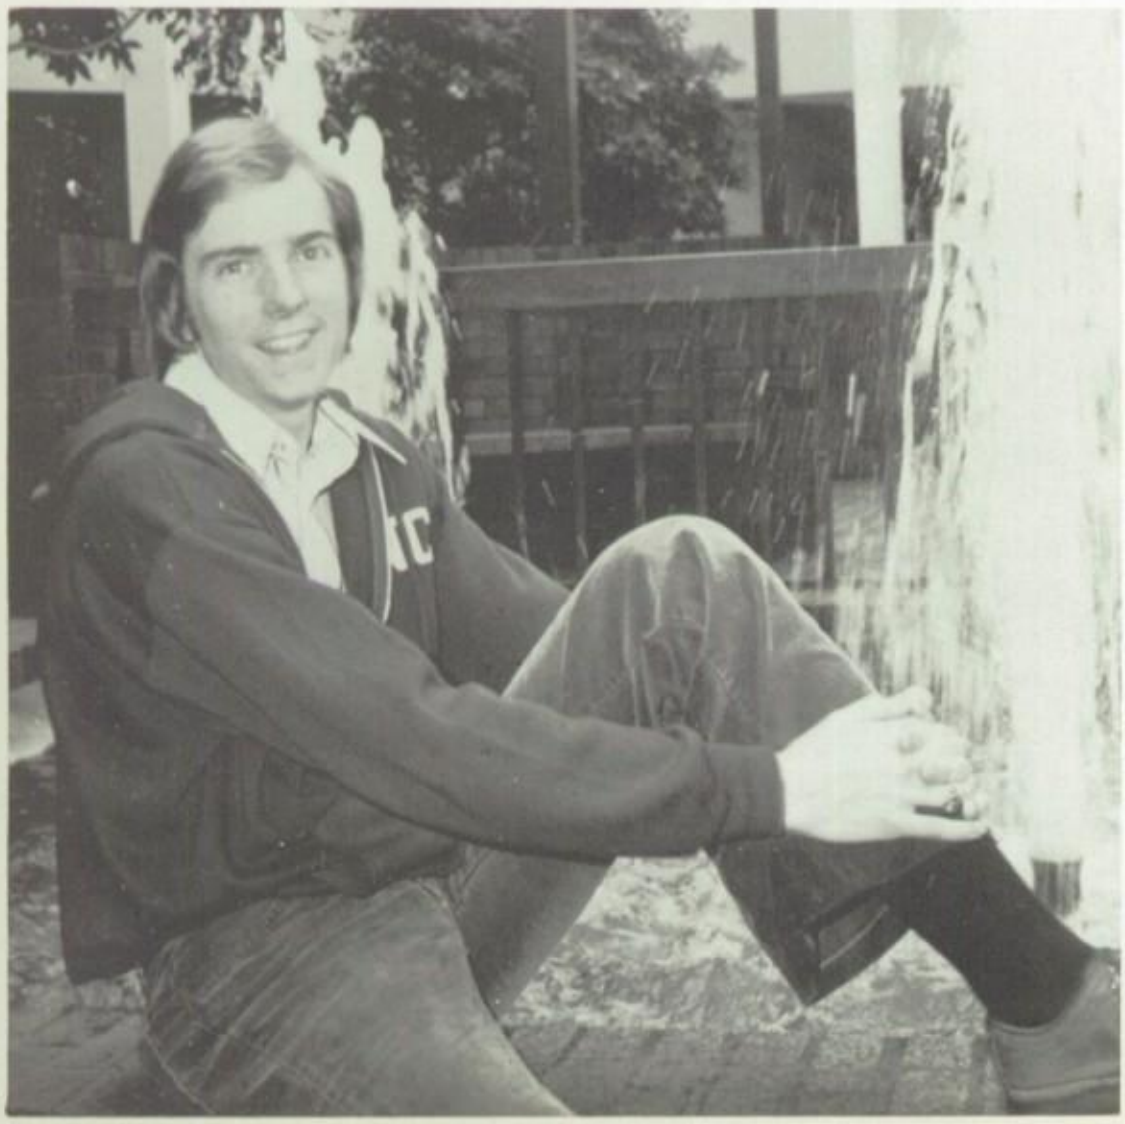
A Morehead Nominee, Sabrina Sasser, has been actively involved in many aspects of FTS life. She is a member of the Honor Society and the French Club. She has served as Organizations' Editor of the LaFAMAC and treasurer for the Tri-Hi-Y. Sabrina also worked on the Steering Committee for the Junior-Senior Prom. She has won ribbons for competition in horse shows and a ceramics show. She enjoys decoupage, crocheting, crewel embroidery, and horticulture. Sabrina plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill.

Academic Achievement

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Proverbs 3:5-6

Few students have accomplished so much, in so many fields as Sue Womble has. Sue has been involved in many aspects of FTS. She served as secretary and chaplain of the Tri-Hi-Y. She was also vice-president and secretary of the Scottish Dancers during her three years at Terry Sanford. Sue is a member of the National Honor Society and French Club. She also worked hard as a Marshal and as a member of the Junior-Senior Steering Committee. Sue's athletic abilities displayed while on the tennis team caused her to be named to the All-Conference Girls' Tennis Team. Sue's understanding of the French language enabled her to tie for second place in N.C. for the National French Exam of 1974. Sue's scholastic abilities were rewarded through the Louise Black Scholastic Award in 1974 and 1975 for the highest average at FTS. She was also nominated for the Morehead Scholarship. Her interests outside of school include the Hay Street United Methodist Youth Fellowship. Her hobbies include sewing, crafts, piano, tennis and swimming. Sue plans to attend UNC at Chapel Hill, majoring in physical therapy.



"I shall yield not and strive onward, for defeat is but a stepping stone towards victory, when it strengthens character and faith; I must make my mark."

Anonymous

Mark Braswell has devoted countless hours to the service of his school and community. He has exhibited his leadership ability in all types of student organizations. Mark has held the offices of Junior Class Treasurer, Honor Society Vice-President, Key Club Vice-President, and Service Club President. He has the responsibility of a state-wide office since being elected Treasurer of the Youth Councils of North Carolina. He is also active in F.C.C.Y.C. In his junior year Mark was awarded the Janie Simmerman Courtesy Cup. He is active in church work, foreign language clubs, and is a marshal. Mark's hobbies include art and sports. Next year Mark will attend U.N.C. at Chapel Hill and eventually study law.

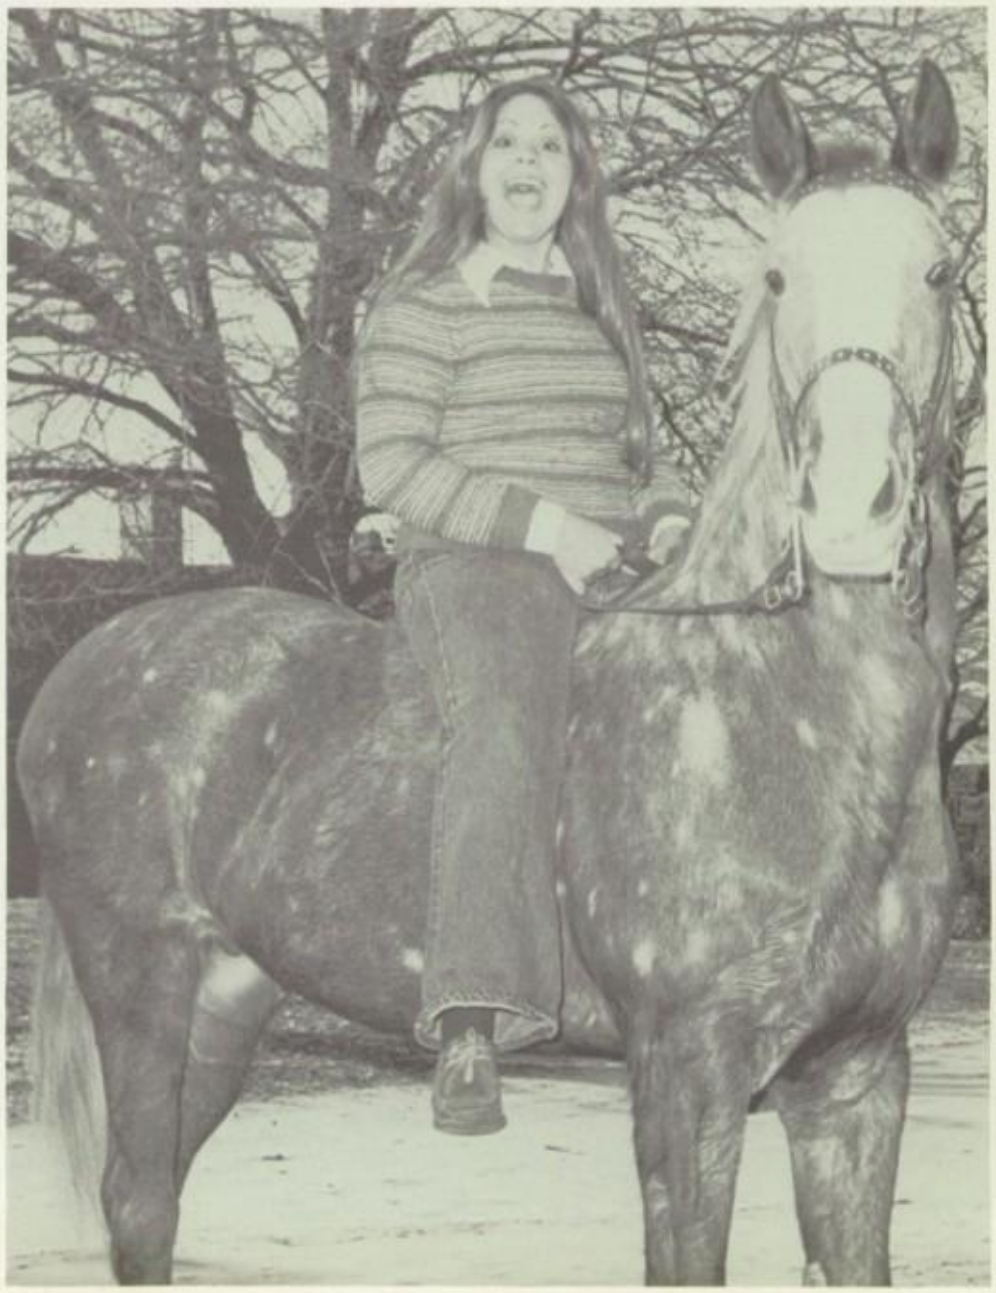
Prompts Success

"Facts are of slight value unless they are intelligently interpreted."
William Feather

John Parham has demonstrated varied interests during his years at FTS. He won this school's Bicentennial Essay Contest and the Stedman Junior Essay Contest, and he lettered in wrestling. He is a member of the Spanish Club, the Honor Society, and First Presbyterian Church. John enjoys playing the guitar and the banjo, coin collecting, golf, and bowling. He plans to continue his education and his study of music.

"The heart has its reasons that reason knows nothing about."
Antoine de St. Exupery

Rebecca Person, a National Merit Commended student, has participated in various phases of school life. She served as secretary for the Honor Society and worked as Classes' Editor of the LaFAMAC. She has been involved with Kiwanettes and Children of the American Revolution. Rebecca's hobbies include horseback riding and swimming. She plans to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.



Seniors Bring

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Proverbs 3:5-6

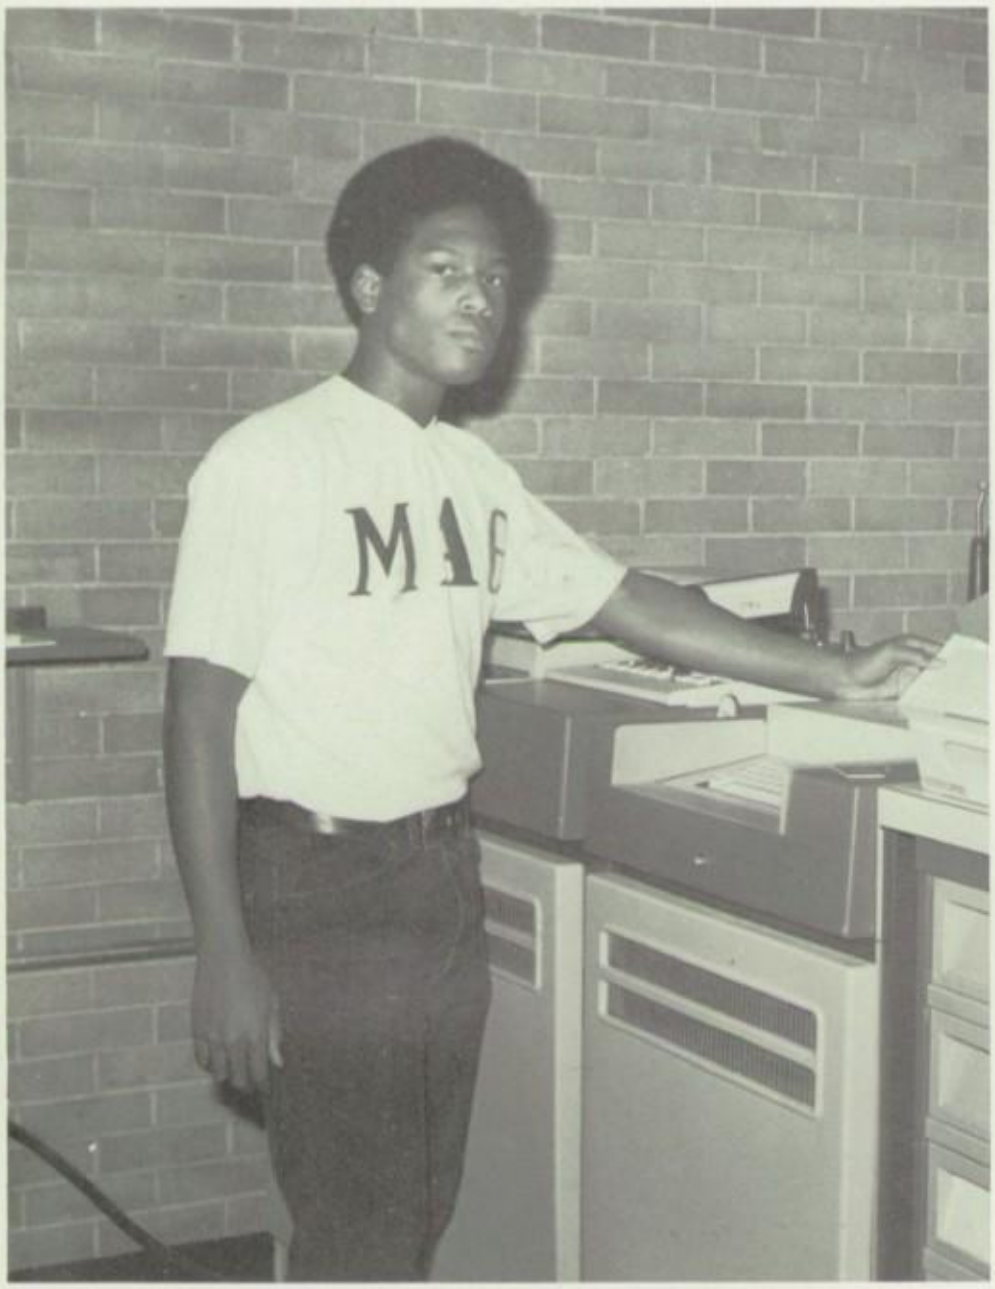
Chris Newman ranks high among those versatile students at FTS. Chris excels at all sports: basketball, pool, ping-pong, tennis, and golf for which he received the N.C. State Junior Championship. He was the Most Valuable Athlete his sophomore year. Chris has served as a marshal and waiter, on the Junior-Senior Steering Committee, as Chairman of the Senior Mascot Committee, and as a Senior Class Representative. Other school activities in which Chris has been involved include the Key Club, Math Club, Spanish Club and National Honor Society. He is also a member of FCCYC and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. His achievements have been awarded through the DAR Good Citizenship Award and a Morehead Nomination. Chris plans to attend either UNC at Chapel Hill or Wake Forest to pursue a career in medicine.

"One could do worse than be a swinger of birches."

Robert Frost

Gina Psaki's sharp mind and love for the humanities have distinguished her from her fellow students. Gina, a National Merit Commended Student, has a keen interest in languages and has contributed greatly both in class and in Foreign language clubs. Both a talent and love for music have been revealed through her interest in the European League of Music Students and various choral groups. In her spare time, Gina enjoys horseback riding and reading. In the future, Gina plans to attend Dickinson College, Law School and eventually practice law in Europe.

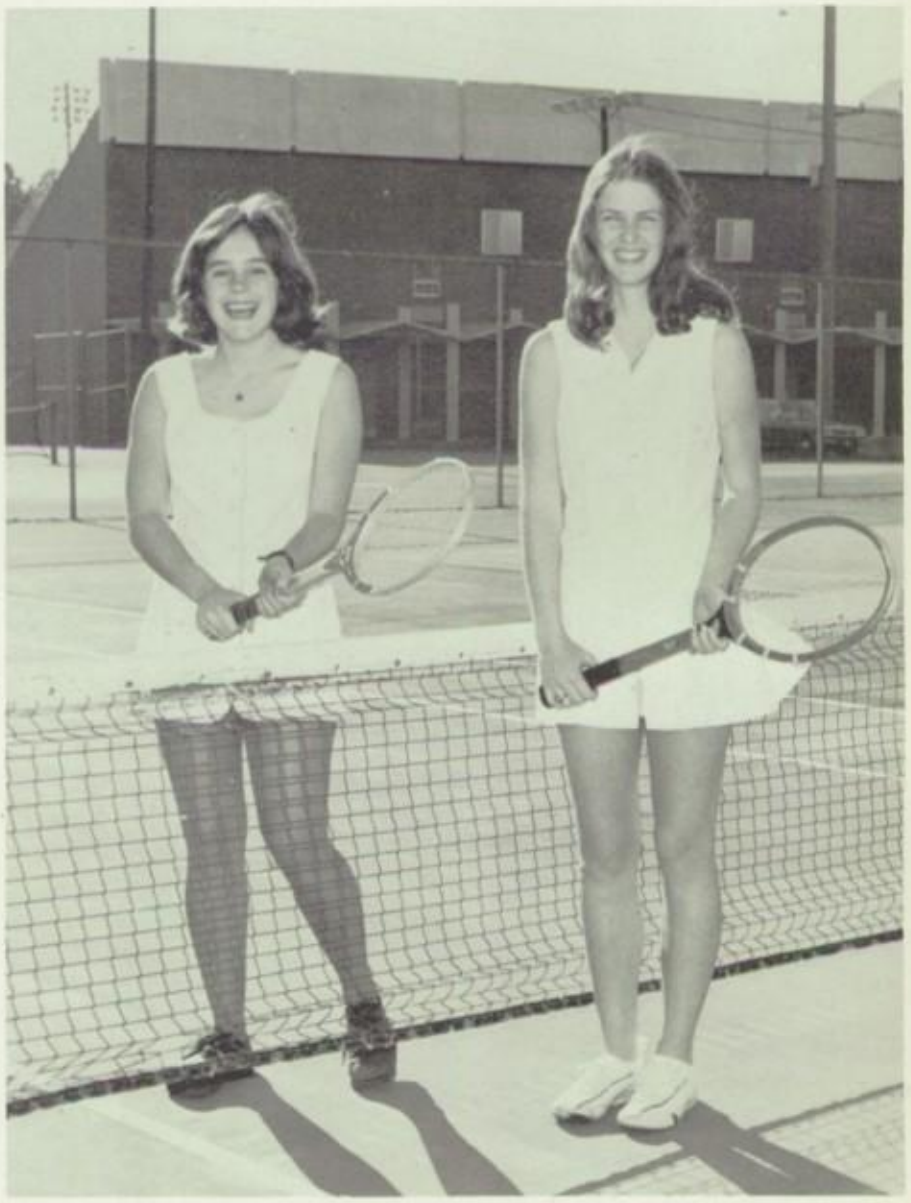
Honor to FTS



"You're a shining star, no matter who you are, shining bright to see what you can truly be."

Earth, Wind, Fire

Randall Otey, a NASP outstanding Negro student semi-finalist, has been active in many aspects of Terry Sanford. He was the BULLDOG and LaFAMAC photographer his sophomore year. Randall is a member of the Math Club and AFROTC. He enjoys photography and all sports. Randall hopes to attend college in Virginia or Washington, D.C., majoring in computer science or systems engineering.



Jean Dawson and Sue Womble were named to the All-Conference Girls Tennis Team.

Individuals Profit

Scottish Dancers: Anne Robinson, Sue Womble and Susan Fleming were awarded medals in competition at Red Springs.

From Their Talents

John Sternlicht, Robin MacMillan, Eldridge McMillian, Denise Bunn and Mihoko Manabe (not pictured) attended Governor's School last summer.

Mitchell Wright, George Pantelakos and Willie Williams were selected for the All-Conference Football Team.

Outstanding Leadership

"That which we are, we are all the while teaching, not voluntarily but involuntarily."

Emerson

Throughout his years at Terry Sanford, Douglas Brewer has demonstrated his outstanding ability as a leader. As Junior Class President, he was in charge of the Miss FTS Committee and the Junior-Senior Prom. In his senior year, Douglas served as Student Body President and initiated programs to aid student involvement and communication. He is a member of the Key Club and the FCCYC, also the Spanish Club. He participated as a member of the Cumberland County Board of Health and the Educational Development Committee. Douglas had the honor of being a National Delegate to the Student Council Convention. In Teen Democrats he is Cumberland County District Chairman and serves on the State Executive Committee. Douglas is interested in public speaking and politics. He plans to attend UNC-Chapel Hill and study law.

"You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

Kahlil Gibran

DAR Good Citizen, Ann Duvall, has given much of herself during her three years at FTS. As a Junior, she served on the Junior-Senior Steering Committee, was vice-president of the Spanish Club, and was inducted into the Honor Society. Because of her athletic ability, Ann was an asset to the girl's basketball and tennis teams. She has taken an active part in outside activities such as FCCYC, her church choir, and the EYC of which she is president. She is currently corresponding secretary of the Tri-Hi-Y and the Editor of the LAFAMAC. Ann's future plans are to attend UNC-Chapel Hill next fall.

Earns Recognition

"I learned this, at least, by my experiment: that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours."

Thoreau

David Sappenfield has exemplified a keen intellect at Terry Sanford. He has the honor of being a Moorehead Nominee and a National Merit Commended Student. His activities include J.V. football, Honor Society, Math Club, FCCYC, and Fayetteville Presbyterian Youth Council. David has held the office of president in the Key Club and in his Church Fellowship. As a Junior he was an announcer for the Miss FTS Contest and served on the Junior-Senior Steering Committee. Currently, David is the Senior Class Treasurer and Sports Editor for the LAFAMAC. Among his many interests are water skiing, hunting, fishing, tennis, and golf. David's plans for the future are to attend either Davidson, UNC-Chapel Hill, or Duke, and major in pre-medicine.

"I shall pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, let me do it now; let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

De Grellet

Anne Robinson has revealed her capability in all aspects of student life. Honored for her scholastic ability as a National Merit Semifinalist, Anne was recently named to Who's Who Among American High School Students. She has exhibited her leadership ability by serving as president of the Scottish Dancers and secretary for the Tri-Hi-Y, of which she has been a member for three years. Anne is also involved in the French Club, the Service Club, FCCYC, and her church's Youth Fellowship. She is a member of the National Honor Society. Her hobbies are water sports, tennis, and reading. Anne's future plans are undecided, but UNC-Chapel Hill, Meredith, and the College of William and Mary are under her consideration.

Marshals Render

Ruth Broadwell and Howard Carmichael eagerly await the beginning of the Fine Arts Festival.

Mr. Warren informally chats with Marshals before the Senior Class Play.

Being selected a marshal is one of the greatest honors available to juniors at Terry Sanford. Along with this honor comes a great responsibility and sacrifice of time. Selected because of their outstanding character, scholarship, and popularity, the marshals represent their school and serve at various school projects. Their most important task is leading the Senior Class at Commencement. They also assist at Awards Day, the Senior Class Play, the Miss FTS Pageant, and the Fine Arts Festival. The marshals are marked by their blue and white ribbons. Under the excellent guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Warren, the marshals serve their school with honor and pride.

Organizations

Hi-Y Continues Service

Involving members in school and community service characterized the activities of this Hi-Y Club year. At the YMCA they helped with the basketball program as coaches and referees. Club members also collected money with the Tri-Hi-Y for the annual UNICEF drive.

In connection with school projects, the Hi-Y decorated a Christmas tree for the Senior lobby, organized the Homecoming Cavalcade, and parked cars for the back-to-school PTA meeting. Senior members participated in the familiar Student-Faculty basketball game, while new members served as cheerleaders. They also cleaned the school parking lot on Saturday mornings.

Key Club Beautifies

Carrying out many school and community projects, the Terry Sanford Key Club had a very productive year. Some of these projects included a campus clean-up held in conjunction with the Kiwanettes and working at the office counter before school and at the ten-minute break. Other projects were a car wash, trick-or-treating for UNICEF, and selling programs at home football games. The Key Club also sponsored the car sticker and Career Day programs. Key Clubbers also manned a checkpoint for the Diabetes Bike-a-Thon this year.

With Spirit

Members work to make money at a Yum-Yum Shop.

Terry Sanford's Tri-Hi-Y promotes Christian fellowship through participation in school and community activities. After the initiation of nineteen new members, the club trick-or-treated for UNICEF and worked at the YMCA's Halloween Carnival. Giving further service to the community, the Tri-Hi-Y worked with project "Sharp" and the "little sister" project which enabled members to share many happy experiences with underprivileged children. The club supported the "Friends of the Cumberland County Public Library" by the collection and the donation of used books. To raise money the club held Yum-Yum Shops which added variety to the lunch menu.

As co-sponsors of College Day, the Tri-Hi-Y's forty-five members welcomed representatives from all over North and South Carolina as well as Virginia. Thus, under the guidance of Mrs. Hendon, the Tri-Hi-Y sponsor, the club enjoyed another successful year.

Initiations show the spirit of new members.

Kiwanettes Serve School

The Kiwanette Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is a service organization for girls. New members are elected early in each school year. The Kiwanettes participate in many school and community service projects including trick-or-treating for UNICEF, helping with the annual campus clean-up, and aiding the American Red Cross. They also visit the Veteran's Administration Hospital and have Christmas parties for the patients there.

The objectives of the Kiwanette Club are to develop leadership and brotherhood as well as serving the school and community. The Kiwanette Club, previously called the Keyette Club, is in its fourth year at Terry Sanford. Advisors are Mrs. Pate and Mrs. Daskal.

VICA Develops Leaders

VICA and Carpentry II students work together.

Officers of the VICA Club Are: Vice-Pres., Kevin Stransky; Secretary, Dino Zogzas; President, George Parham; Treas., William Abbot; and sponsor, Mr. Dupree.

Organized in 1973, VICA, Vocational and Industrial Clubs of America, strives to develop leadership among students enrolled in industrial education. Members of Construction Industry, Masonry and Carpentry are eligible for membership.

VICA, along with Carpentry II students, construct a house each year which will be auctioned in the spring. This project enables the students to use their skills. Mr. Dupree, the sponsor, supervises all project work.

Members of VICA exhibit a model of the house.

Senior High Singers and Girls

Mrs. Chason smiles after Sr. Hi. Singers and Girl's Chorus performance.

Senior High Singers and the Girls Chorus of Terry Sanford had a very successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Peggy Chason, music director. Both groups blended their voices in presenting an enjoyable and informative program for the Art Festival and Thanksgiving.

The highlight of the school year was a trip to Wilmington, N.C. to perform live on the Jim Burns Show.

Students currently enrolled at F.T.S. are chosen each spring through audition from all grade levels.

The Terry Sanford Black History Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Forshee, met each month throughout the school year to plan projects and learn of their Black Culture. Club members sold doughnuts as fund raising project and planned for the oncoming Black History week. The club is open to students who have completed the Black History course and those who are currently enrolled.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America, a club for girls who wish to extend their participation in home economics, performed many service projects throughout the year. The members sang for the residents of Glad Haven Rest Home, collected Trick-or-Treat money for UNICEF, and made cookies for the teachers.

After the exciting initiations at Rowan Park, the girls settled down to monthly meetings under the direction of Miss Holden and Mrs. Warren. Much planning and preparation went into the annual Christmas Tea held for the faculty. The FHA's Projects were funded by a very successful candy sale.

D.E. Prepares Students for Jobs

Distributive Education opens up new channels for job and business opportunities for students. Those enrolled in D.E. are allowed to leave school early to go to their jobs in Fayetteville and the surrounding area. In class, the students learn invaluable business techniques which are applied at their jobs.

FTS French Club Enjoys

Striving to stimulate a greater interest in the language and culture of France, the French Club enjoyed a traditional French Christmas dessert, Buche de Noël, at their Christmas meeting. As the refreshments vanished, the interest appeared while Mrs. Jiamachello discussed French customs and past times during Christmas in France.

A successful candy sale provided ample finances for the projects the French Club undertook during the year. Success also characterized the annual French dinner.

Thus, the French Club sponsors, Mrs. Rulnick and Miss Stanback, led the club to another worthwhile year.

Spanish Club Members

Organized to encourage students further in the speaking and understanding of the Spanish language, the Spanish Club meets every second Tuesday. Membership is open to any student currently enrolled in Spanish II or above.

The club celebrated a traditional Spanish Christmas by the presentation of Las Posadas, the Spanish Nativity scene and also by the breaking of the piñata.

A successful candy sale along with the competent guidance of Mrs. MacMillian, the sponsor, gave the Spanish Club another profitable year.

Latin Club

Buying audiovisual aids for our school library was the main service project of the Latin Club this year. As another service, club members entered the Cadet teaching program and taught Latin to sixth grade students in the city schools.

Promoting a greater interest in Roman culture is the main goal of the Latin Club. Meetings are held once a month and any student currently enrolled in Latin may join.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Pate, Latin I students performed several skits for the other members. At the Foreign Language Fair in Laurinburg, students manned a booth and participated in tests of Latin skill. In the spring the club had a Latin dinner. Most club projects were funded by the annual candy sale.

Business Club

Perhaps the greatest accomplishment of the year for the Business Club was the publication of the Buzz Book, a student directory of addresses and telephone numbers. The club was also responsible for the attractive bulletin board ideas displayed in the business wing. Members of the club learned about various aspects of different businesses through interesting speakers at the club's monthly meetings. Under the guidance of their faculty advisor, Mrs. Rowell, the Business Club completed another successful year.

ROTC Promotes

Instilling a sense of leadership and government is the main purpose of ROTC. The education of cadets extends beyond the classroom through involvement in off campus activities. Fieldtrips, drill team and color guard practices are important activities for the cadets. Under the direction of Major Purdue and Sgt. Mauney, the ROTC program proves successful.

Scottish Dancers

This year the Scottish Dancers participated in many activities throughout the community as well as the state. In competition at Red Springs Sue Womble, Susan Flemming, and Anne Robinson received medals. At the State Fair, the group won first and third places. During halftime at Homecoming they performed the reel for the queen. The club also performed for the Cancer Society, the Art Festival at Lake Waccamaw, and other various church groups, local organizations, and schools.

Mrs. Perrow, the sponsor, led the club members through weeks of planning to put on a most enjoyable Sadie Hawkins.

Honor Society

Perhaps one of the most impressive ceremonies held at FTS is that of the induction of new members into the Thomas M. Hunter chapter of the National Honor Society. In order to be selected for membership, a student must have shown leadership ability as well as outstanding scholastic achievement. One of the services provided by the Honor Society is the tutoring of interested students by members of the society.

Bulldog Keeps

Published by the Journalism Class, under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Bettye Grady, THE BULLDOG is Terry Sanford's monthly newspaper. Its purpose is to report all activities at FTS, whether it be the Miss FTS Contest or the school sports events. The paper also provides interesting reading in the editorial and creative sections. THE BULLDOG also reports club activities and keeps everyone on top of school events through "Around the Dog House."

The paper is financed by ads from local merchants and by individual subscriptions.

All members of the staff look forward to the annual field trip to THE FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER-TIMES where they can observe a full scale newspaper in operation.

Teamwork is what makes the Lafamac possible. Staff members work together, helping each other when needed. Everything seems to be going fine until members realize they have one week to meet their deadline. Then everyone begins to rush around like mad taking last minute pictures, trying to think of creative headlines, and making layouts. But finally, through the excellent supervision of Mrs. Helen Mask, the advisor, everything falls into place and the Lafamac is on the way. Then everyone can relax and enjoy a feeling of accomplishment as they anxiously await the arrival of the finished Lafamac.

Bulldog Racquet Men Capture

In a well-deserved and spirited championship win over Laurinburg-Scotland, the Bulldog racquet men clinched the Division 4-A crown for the second straight year. Under Coach Gil Bowman, the successful net men were led by Hank Avants, who represented the team in the sectionals and in the prized state tournament. Also representing the Bulldogs in the sectionals located at Sandhills Community College were David Bock, advancing to the third round of play; Jay Williams; and Robin MacMillan. Representing the team in doubles were Phillip Jiamachello and Robin Jenkins. The season boasted a 10-2 record. The 1976 season will include many returning players; however, the Bulldogs will miss the services of the outgoing seniors led by Robin Jenkins and Phillip Jiamachello, co-captains of the team.

Bulldogs Take City Championship

Under the able leadership of Coach Fred McDaniel, the baseball Bulldogs ended their season by demolishing inner-city rival Reid Ross in a 21-3 game at Ross. Although the team's overall record stood at 6-8, they were undefeated in the city and won the city championship. Charlie Carter was named the Most Valuable Player, with the coach's award and Most-Improved award going to Edward Hickman and Mark Hurley respectively.

Golfers Dominate

Placing number one in the Conference was only one of the highlights of the 1975 Bulldog Golf team. The golfers coached by Mackie Hall were 74 strokes ahead of the closest contender at the end of the season. The Bulldog golfers advanced into the sectionals where they placed second. Chris Newman, Division medalist and Frank Acker led the team, supporting casts included Craig Autry, David Butler and Greg Long. In the state tournament in Chapel Hill, Terry Sanford stole the show with Frank Acker beating Newman on the last hole to take the 1975 State Title. David Butler and Craig Autry helped carry the Bulldogs to fourth place in the tournament. The services of Frank Acker, Craig Autry, and Greg Long will definitely be missed, but the '76 season seems to be on its way to success.

1975 Track Team Sprints

Finishing with a second place tie in the conference, the Bulldogs compiled an overall record of 18-9. The 1975 season proved to be one of great success. Under the leadership of Coaches Simpson and McFerren, the team had 19 members to qualify for the sectionals at Pembroke State University. Five bulldogs performed well enough to qualify for the regionals in Greenville. Otis Melvin won the 100 yd. dash, placed third in the 220 yd. dash, and aided the 880 relay team in capturing first place honors. The other members of the 880 relay team were Tony Burney, George Martin, and Deno Tyson. John McDonald placed second in the shot-put. These five men participated in the state meet. There Melvin finished third in the 100 yd. dash and fifth in the 220 yd. dash. The 880 relay team finished fifth as did John McDonald in the shot-put. The trackmen should return with a strong and experienced team next year.

Girls' Track Completes First Season

Mary Chatman sprints for victory.

Interest and enthusiasm marked the introduction of Girls' Track to the Bulldog sports program last year. The lady harriers, coached by Miss Irene Hondros, defeated Reid Ross on April 23 at the FTS track by a score of 72-41. On April 30, the lady Bulldogs were defeated by the Smith team on Smith's home track. The team also placed third in the city meet held on May 14 at the Reid Ross track. The team was characterized by many strong individuals. Mary Chatman performed well in the 100 and 200 yd. dashes, and in the 440 and 880 relays. The relay teams also did exceptionally well and were composed of Chatman, Jackie Jones, Renée Hill, Muriel Evans, Minnie Cherry, and Maxine Brown. Jane Hensdale, Jean Barbour, and Ann Covington did well in the mile run. Mimi Spears also did a fine job in the shot-put. The team which was composed of almost all juniors and sophomores last year will return with more experience and strength for a successful season this year.

Pam Wiggins shows her number 1 swing.

Though dedicated, the girl's softball team finished their season with a rather dismal 4-11 record. In the conference, they stood 2-8. The season's victories included one against Richmond County, who was previously undefeated. Other wins came against Pine Forest, Reid Ross, and Douglas Byrd, which was won by forfeit. The Most Improved Player award went to Pinky Young. The Most Valuable Player was Pam Wiggens and Mary Carnegie was given the coach's award.

Harriers Complete Winning Season

Coached by Mr. Gil Bowman, the cross country team posted a 7-5 record. Doug Meyers, Lester Williams, Kent Killen, Rick Mullin, Mike Patton, Deno Tyson, and David Hankins led the team throughout the year and placed fourth in the divisionals at Douglas Byrd. These seven, except Hankins, performed well enough to advance to the sectionals where the team placed seventh. Doug Meyers also placed seventh individually and advanced to the state meet at Chapel Hill where he placed twenty-third. Meyers, a senior, also broke the Terry Sanford course record in aiding the team to defeat Wilmington Hoggard. His record of 16:29 surpasses the old record of 16:41 by 12 seconds. Although the team will lose some seniors through graduation, Coach Bowman is looking forward to another strong team next year.

Volleyball Produces Instant Success

The first competitive volleyball season proved successful for the Bulldog girls. Under the guidance of Coach Hondros both the J.V. and Varsity teams posted winning seasons. The J.V.'s record of 13-3 was the best in the Fayetteville area. The varsity record of 12-4 secured them the divisional crown, which enabled the Bulldogs to compete in Raleigh for a state invitational tournament. The girls acquired the right techniques and became well-skilled in the art of volleyball quickly.

Pinky Young and Mary Chatman were good enough to be picked for the all-conference team. Miss Hondros expects an even stronger and more experienced team in 1976.

Lady Netters Place Second in Conference

Netting second place in the conference, again reveals the strength of ladies tennis at Terry Sanford. Sue Womble, the number one seed, led the lady netters to a 13-3 slate for the 1975 season. Coached by Christine Cherry the girls displayed interesting and exciting tennis to the FTS fans. Hard work on concentration and techniques was shown by the play at the end of the season in the sectionals held in Southern Pines. Six FTS girls participated in the tournament led by Sue Womble who was seeded fifth. Great play by Jean Dawson which advanced her into the semi-finals qualified her for the state tournament in Chapel Hill. Although the team will suffer from graduation many young players next fall will again enthrall the tennis enthusiast.

Lady Golfers

Bad weather proved to be the worst foe for the girl's golf team this year as two of the four scheduled matches were cancelled because of rain. With the leadership of Jan Lanius and Kathy Lothspeich, the team placed second in the two matches they did play. The season, however, was not a total loss. Coach Cherry will have many lettermen returning next year for a strong season.

Bulldogs Post

Returning with only three starters, the Bulldog team experienced a year of rebuilding that led to a record of 4-6. The Terry Sanford gridders started the season by winning their first three games by shutouts. The highlight of the year, however, was the 24-21 upset win over Reid Ross at Reid Ross. Although the team was marked by inexperience, the Bulldogs showed flashes of outstanding play. Tony Burney made many exciting runs throughout the season. Leading the team throughout the year were Ricky Chamra and Mitchell Wright, captains of the team. Three players performed well enough to be named to the All-Conference team at the end of the season. These players were: Willie Williams — tackle, George Pantelokas — defensive end, and Mitchell Wright — middle linebacker. With many starters returning for the 1976-77 season, the Bulldogs hope to be conference contenders.

Mitchell Wright and Ricky Chamra, team co-captains, await the toss of the coin.

J.V.'s Look for Varsity Action

Jeff Henson races toward six points.

With a 3-6-1 season, the J.V. football team retired with their best record in four years. Tim Dunn showed promise as quarterback, but was unable to play the entire season due to injury. Jeff Henson and Larry Johnson also showed promise as future varsity running backs. Outstanding offensive linemen included Steve Poulos and Tom Sullivan. Sullivan also stood out on defense along with Alvin Waddell, Damon Ashby, and Boyd Holmes. The J.V. football team was led by Coaches Simpson and McDaniel.

Backed by the support of many Bulldog fans, the 1975-76 Varsity Basketball Team finished their season with an outstanding record of 21-9. The seniors provided much of the talent and leadership, as four or five of the starters were seniors. The team was led by brilliant playmaker, John McPhaul and big men Travis Lock and Kenny Howell. Otis Melvin and Chris Newman also performed well for the Bulldogs. After defeating New Hanover, the Bulldogs advanced to the prized state tournament in Greensboro. Through outstanding play the team reached the semi-finals, where they were defeated. The Bulldogs showed great poise in defeating Richmond County for third place in the tournament. John McPhaul was named to the all-state tourney team. Despite the loss of several key players, veteran Coach Len Maness will return next year with another great season.

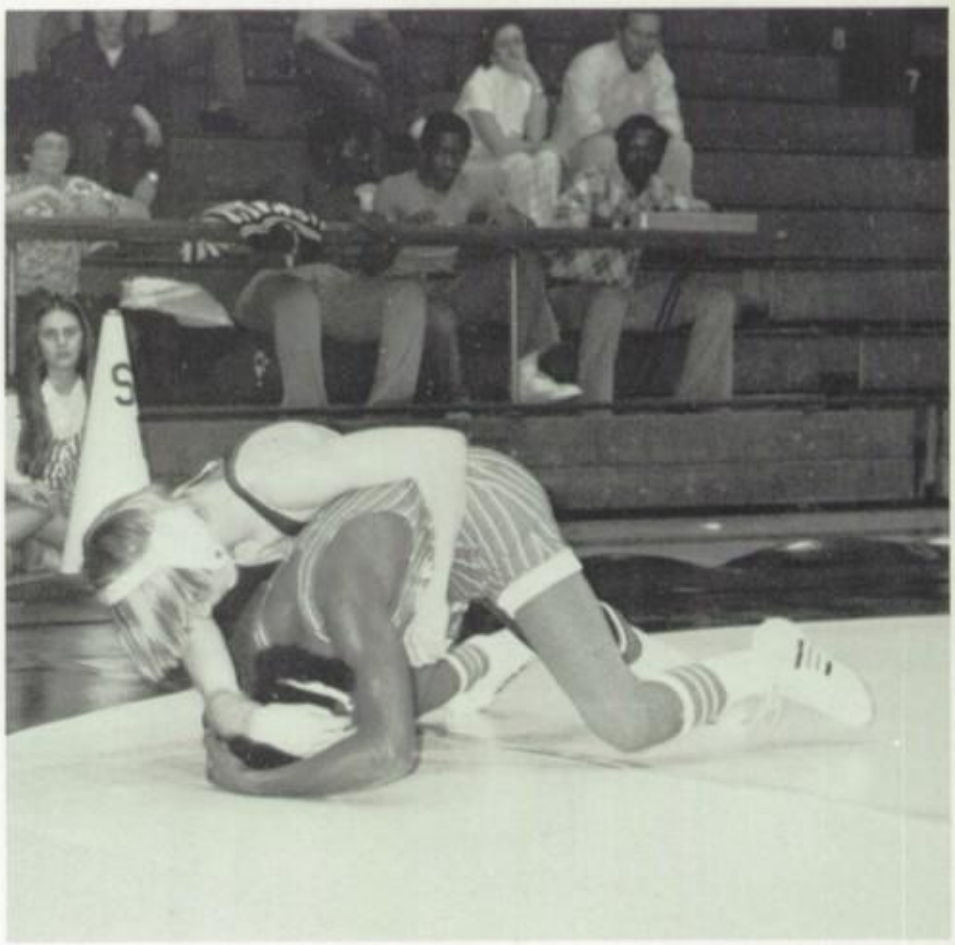
Wrestlers Experience Poor Season

Although the 1975-76 Wrestlers worked hard to win, the team ended its regular season with a disappointing 0-9 record. A bright spot, however, was Ralph Sutton who compiled a 13-4 record, which included eight pins. Joe McDonald and Joe Robinson held respective records of 7-2 and 6-1-2. Both Ralph and Joe McDonald advanced to the Sectionals at Sanford Central Senior High School where they placed second and third respectively. Ralph also placed first in the Divisional Tournament at Southview Senior High School. Under Coach McDaniel's guidance, the wrestlers as a team look for a better season next year.



Sam McCreary drives for a pin.

Girls Capture Conference Title

Determination characterized the 1976 Girls' Basketball Team coached by Irene Hondros. Exhibiting good attitudes the lady Bulldogs worked hard throughout the season. These important qualities paid off in one of the best seasons the Bulldogs have had since girls' basketball was revived at Terry Sanford. Leading the scoring attack were sophomore Barbara Galbreath and junior Janet Rose. The Bulldogs gave the F.T.S. fans much excitement with many games going down to the final seconds or in to overtime. Losing only two players from the squad, Miss Hondros expects an even brighter season next year with an abundance of talent and experience returning.

Barbara Galbreath searches for opening for the Bulldogs.

Faculty

Dr. Abbott and Assistants

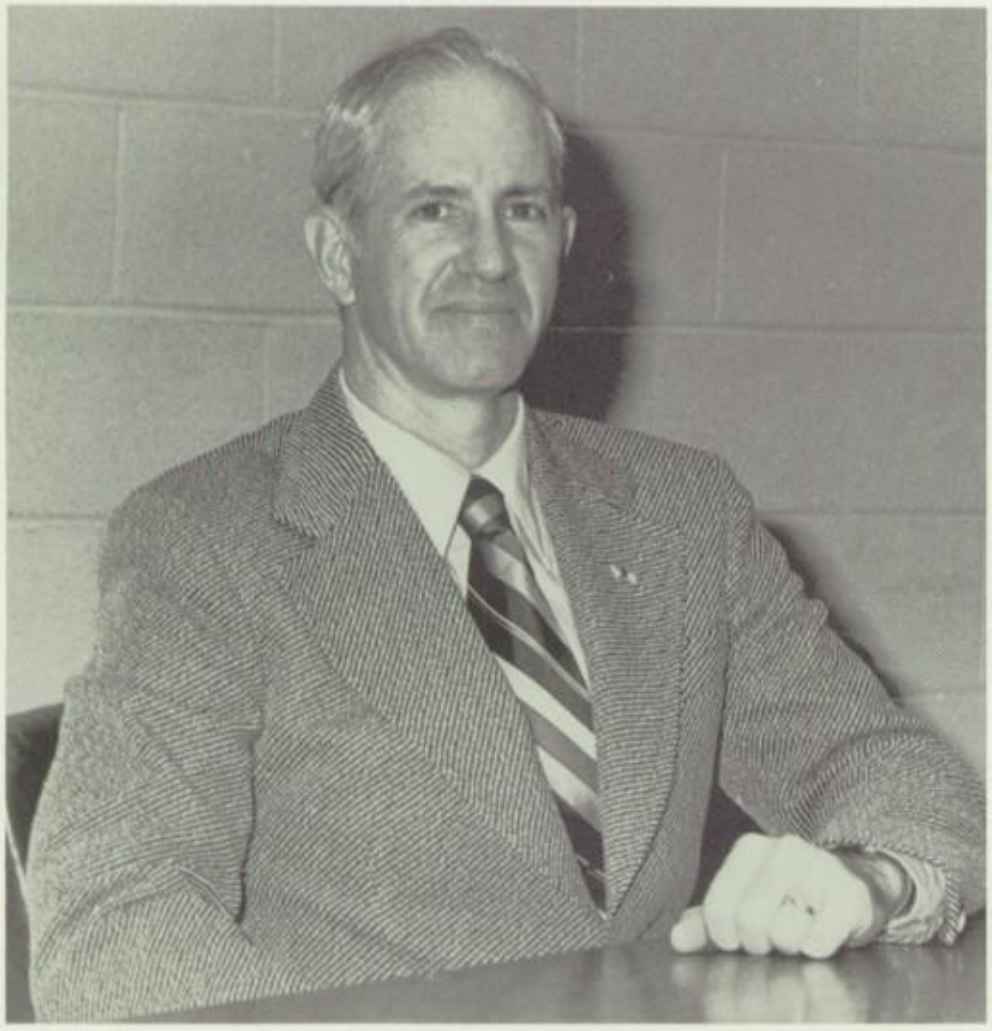
The organization and execution of administration of the Fayetteville City Schools System is piloted by the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Max Abbott. Dr. Abbott is ably assisted by one associate and four assistant superintendents. Monthly meetings of the school board are held to insure that all phases of school policy are running smoothly.

The sale of Horace Sisk Junior High to Fayetteville Technical Institute has solidified plans for building a new middle school. Tentatively scheduled to open in the fall of 1977 are two new middle schools: one behind the Fayetteville Mall to replace Horace Sisk, the other in the Raleigh Road Area. The Senior High Schools will then expand to include grades 9-12.

DR. ABBOTT, Superintendent of City Schools

The administration building bustles with activity.

Oversee City System



DR. C. FLETCHER WOMBLE, associate superintendent, coordinates all certified personnel. He also serves as a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee. He received his undergraduate, master's, and doctorate degrees from UNC.

MR. W. T. BROWN, former principal of E. E. Smith, serves as the assistant superintendent in charge of program, procedure and personnel, for the Junior and Senior High Schools. An additional duty is coordinating the work of the instructional supervisors.

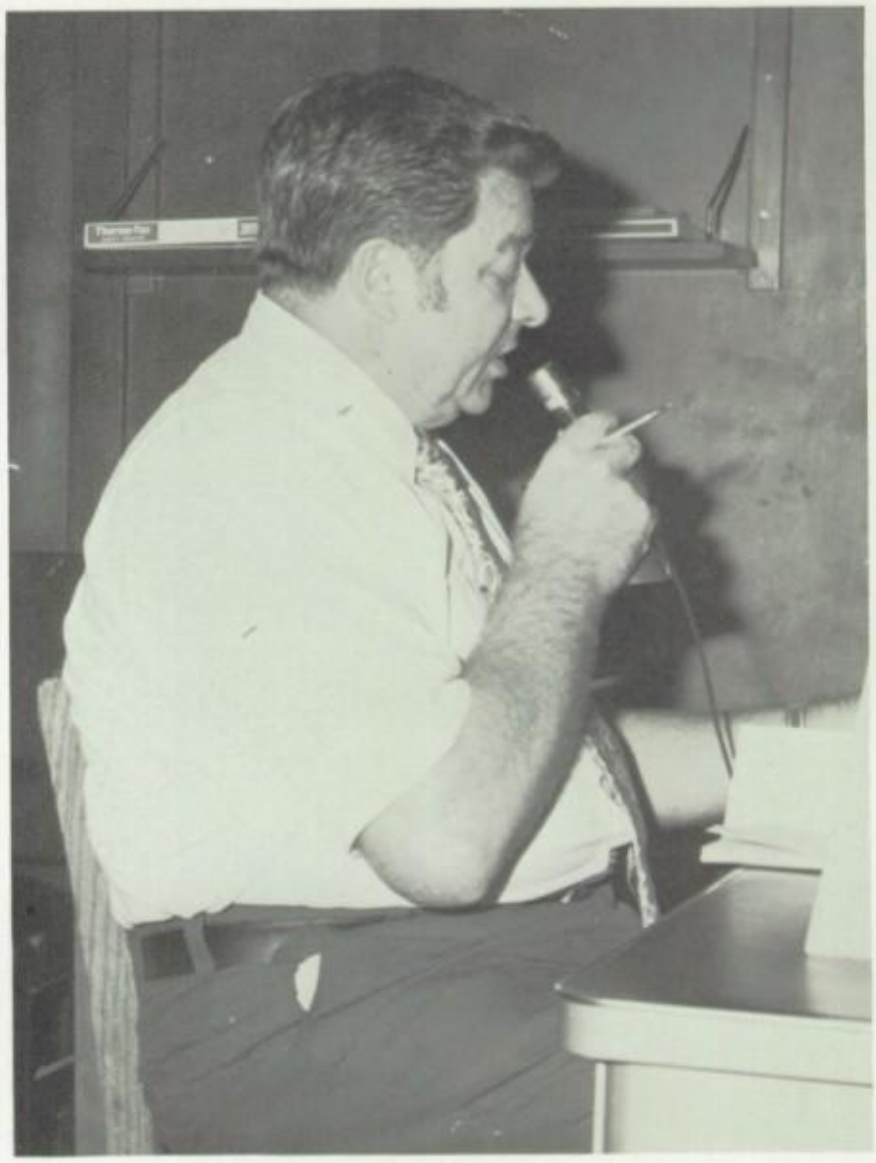
MR. ZOLLY BOWDEN, the assistant superintendent in charge of business, manages the cafeteria program, supervises the purchasing of equipment for the schools, and directs the building and maintaining of school plants and grounds. Mr. Bowden earned his master's degree at UNC after graduating from Elon College.

Principal Supports Student Endeavors

Serving as the major link between the Board of Education and Terry Sanford Senior High School, Mr. John T. Sasser has provided efficient leadership for the past fifteen years.

He relies on good judgement and a sense of fairness to help him maintain understanding and cooperation between faculty and students.

In addition to a multitude of administrative responsibilities, Mr. Sasser works to maintain high academic standards and to broaden the curriculum to meet the needs of all students. He works closely with the student body on school projects, lends support to the sports program, and encourages students to become active in the extracurricular activities.



Morning announcements are an important part of the homeroom period.

Mr. Sasser takes time out of his busy schedule to contemplate the day's activities.

Secretaries Insure Harmony

MRS. JOHNSON

Mrs. Margaret Johnson now serves as the school registrar. In addition to supervising cumulative folders and scheduling adjustments, she acquaints new students with the FTS routine.

Mrs. Ann Cain acts as Mr. Sasser's personal secretary. She assists students and visitors in the main office.

Mrs. Miriam Carter, the school treasurer, handles the financial accounts for the school, students, and clubs.

Mrs. Sara Bullard, the clinic secretary, compiles the absentee report, makes attendance calls, and aids students who become ill at school.

MRS. CARTER

MRS. BULLARD

MRS. CAIN

Deans Aid Principal

Few students realize that controlling a student body requires a firm guidance, which is what the four deans at FTS work to maintain. Punishing or helping, their responsibilities are numerous.

Mr. Percy Warren, the assistant principal directs lunch traffic, organizes daily detention hall, and confers with parents and students. In addition, he served as the Driver's Education Coordinator for Terry Sanford.

The administrative assistant, Mr. Melvin Pierce, supervises the student bus drivers and buses, administers disciplinary action, and heads the Student Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Helen Mask and Mrs. Nancy Blackmon assist with holding conferences, signing late passes, excusing absences and tardies, and compiling attendance records.

Students' Curiosity

The Science Department at F.T.S. offers a wide variety of courses. Lab work allows students to observe and apply the facts presented in classroom lectures. Students are required to take an introductory course in biology during their sophomore year which ranges in study from the one-celled amoeba to the human body. A further opportunity is open to all student in Physical Science, and to juniors and seniors in Chemistry. Seniors who have completed a course in chemistry may elect to take advanced biology or physics. This year an advanced chemistry course has been added for those wishing to participate.

Mrs. Perry teaches History as part of the CORE program.

Home Ec Trains for Family Living

By acquiring such practical skills as sewing, cooking, and housekeeping, Home Economics, offered at three levels for girls, teaches students to deal with certain aspects of household living. For both males and females, family life education gives insight into personal marriage and family problems. Both courses are useful in obtaining valuable information and developing skills for roles as efficient homemakers or wage earners.

Members: Your "Key" To:

CONFIDENCE!

Customer Confidence, that most important business ingredient, cannot be bought, borrowed or stolen. It must be EARNED! This hard fact of business life is fully realized by all members of Fayetteville New Car Dealer' Association. Each knows that the life-blood of their business flows only to the degree that they earn acceptance and confidence from the buying public. To this end the association and each individual member firm is dedicated.

Beretta,

Remember all the super crazy times we had at Governors School. Remember all the wild things we did + ren. Cathy! It seemed like such a [redacted] long time when we first got here But in the short 6 weeks I have built what I hope will be a lasting friendship with you. I know that some day you will be important + famous. I'll be able to say I knew when she was 14. Make me proud of you, Wkg Kid! Have the best of everything be yours — because you deserve only the best. —

Awards Day Recognizes Students

One of the traditional year-end activities is the awards day assembly, honoring students who have exhibited talents and achieved accomplishments worthy of acknowledgment. Selected students are commended by the presentation of scholarships, awards, and medals from representatives of various organizations. The Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the Senior Class are introduced and receive awards. The highlight of the assembly occurs when the Service and Challenge Cups are awarded.

To Benetta,

The nicest of the two Walkers. I have had very fortunate to have met you. Friends are the most precious things to be and I'm among those for you, I wish you a lot of happy mins! today, and always. Keep smiling, it makes you look so pretty. Keep your head up and you might get a great time

Love,
Tacky

Sounds funny coming from me to say that, doesn't it. I wanted to start my signing your yearbook, differently than everyone else. Girl, have we had great times, oh have we had great times! You know in gym and all. I wouldn't bring this year back if I had to, for nothing in the world. Not that I want to do anything. (SMILE) I will miss you during the Summertime, But during our Junior year school, we're going to have even a better time. You know, you are really a dumb person to be so smart! (SMILE) May you always be as nice, & crazy as you are. I'll tell you know who on you if you ever try to mess with me. You know who I'm talking about, don't you? I'm sure you and him could make it, if you gave him a try. I understand why you can't, right now, but maybe in the future. "Where there is a will, there's always a way." He blushes, every time I mention your name to him. I know, when you read this, you'll start blushing, But don't give up hope. I really hope we are as good friends next year, as we are this year. Keep on climbing the ladder of success, and in the end you will meet your reward. I really have a lot more to say, but few words & space to say it in. It has really been a worthwhile year ring with you. Don't let all this go to your head. If you do, I'll get you yet, girl.

To Benetta:

You are a unique person. You are the best at everything! It's been so much fun knowing you this year and talking with you. You always seem to brighten my day. I'll always remember the little things you say and how much I'm so glad you have a darkest Kicks. I'm sweet personality and you'll get funny like Claudette always. You will always the best of everything, which is exactly love me that way. Keep your what you deserve. I love ya always, heart. Keep smiling!

To Bergy

We have always been friends, but this year was extra special since we were at Sanford together. We have had numerous funny experiences together that el know you won't forget (el won't either). You are a special person in that you know what you want out of life and you know how to get it. You and el both know that you will be successful. Many people think you act crazy, but deep down you are a very serious person. Next year and all your years at Sanford will be rewarding to you. Remember Chestnut Hills, Ramon, LARRY and Gomis Lytle! AMEN!

Love,

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. — That whenever any form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence indeed will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. — He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. — He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. — He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. — He has called together Legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. — He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. — He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. — He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. — He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers. — He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. — He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their substance. — He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our Legislatures. — He has affected to render the Military independent of, and superior to, the Civil power. — He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: — For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: — For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: — For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: — For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: — For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences: — For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: — For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: — For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. — He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. — He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. — He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. — He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands. — He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. — In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. — Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. —

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.
